In July 2021, it was reported that TikTok had reached a deal with Snapchat to produce sponsored videos for the Snapchat Discover platform. This arrangement came after Snapchat's CEO Evan Spiegel had shared an Instagram post of himself and a TikTok exec riding in a helicopter.",

Spiegel remained as CEO of Snap Inc. while Bobby Murphy became CTO, they both still had creative control over all aspects of TikTok. Neither Toutiao nor ByteDance has revealed exactly how it plans to monetize TikTok in the long term. "I think it will take a lot of time," says Gao. "Tencent knows that and we don't make any immediate pressure for them.",

In July 2021, Congresswoman Katherine Clark called for TikTok's CEO to be summoned before Congress over child pornography concerns. Congresswoman Clark cited the ease with which viewers on TikTok could search for "child pornography" and download child pornography videos directly via the video app. In addition, the app would not remove videos of young girls dancing in sleepwear and underwear. A number of pornographic videos are allegedly available on the platform as well, which some claim negatively effects child mental health.",

In an article published by The Washington Post, it was alleged that "It's so popular among young people even that the Chinese government is now trying to ban it." It continued by saying that "The app, which started as a music-sharing app, has rapidly grown into one of the world's largest social networks for young people. It has a wide user base in China and Asia but has also gained popularity in Europe and the United States. But some people in those regions are concerned about whatever is happening on TikTok. They say it is addictive, and they worry it can be used by adults to groom children or teenagers." This article was published on The Washington Post.",
