In an article published by The Washington Post, it was alleged that "It's so popular among young people even that the Chinese government is now trying to ban it." It continued by saying that "The app, which started as a music-sharing app, has rapidly grown into one of the world's largest social networks for young people. It has a wide user base in China and Asia but has also gained popularity in Europe and the United States. But some people in those regions are concerned about whatever is happening on TikTok. They say it is addictive, and they worry it can be used by adults to groom children or teenagers." This article was published on The Washington Post.",

After TikTok's release in the US, many celebrities started posting their own TikTok clips of themselves dancing, eating, hanging out with their friends and other activities. According to USA Today, by December 2021, over 200k+ stars were posting TikTok videos of themselves. An analysis by The Verge found that these celebrity TikTok clips were downloaded 2-4 million times each day across 10 different countries; even in countries where Instagram was banned. Celebrities including Kylie Jenner, Nicki Minaj, Harry Styles and Justin Bieber have been given official TikTok accounts by the company due to their popular video content on the platform.",

The only remaining question is whether TikTok can continue to grow into a brand that people trust like WeChat in China. Many users of the app have openly voiced their concerns about this, worrying that the app may develop a reputation for being more like Facebook than Instagram (which is more closely related to Twitter). If this turns out to be true, then TikTok may see a dip in share price.",

The following is an example of acceptable and inappropriate content that can be found on TikTok: In January 2021, TikTok removed a short video of Chinese millennials dancing on the street which had been uploaded by a popular group called "Loud Crew". The group uploaded 14 videos to TikTok, and soon after they were removed twice for infringing on copyright laws. A spokesperson from Shanghai authorities said that they had "strictly" enforced copyright laws on access to music videos and screen shots which are not authorised by the owners. The following video is considered inappropriate for young children because it shows adults taking shots and smoking while sitting on a couple of young boys. The adults involved are the child's parents, and the context in which all this occurs is not clear from the video.",

The app shares data with third parties including Yahoo, Facebook, Twitter and Google if it is available through the users' social media accounts that they use to sign in to TikTok.
