When asked, one of the most common practices to get free Netflix is one that many college students practice. There are websites that claim you can access a Netflix account for free, but they provide you with a password to access it. These pages often contain dodgy links that could compromise your data with malware.

The standard Netflix subscription costs $8 a month to access an unlimited number of DVDs and $10 a month with Blu-ray, although rentals are limited to one disc each. Customers looking for an exciting night watching TV can upgrade to the premium card which costs $12 per month (for DVDs) and $15 per month for access to Blu-rays, with the option to borrow up to two discs. The streaming quality you get with Netflix's basic plan will never reach the same standard as the standard and premium rates.

At the end of the free one-month trial period, you will be charged the tariff selected at the time of registration. The trick is to cancel your membership before the process ends and wait for a new one. Netflix is known to email its customers a second free trial every few months after the end of the first, but this is not the case here.
